17/01/2005: -

Shri Shailendra Soni learned counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Sandeep Dubey, learned Panel Lawyer, for the State/respondent No.1, on advance copy.

Heard on I.A. No.7324 of 2004 which is an application for urgent hearing.

The matter is taken up on Board. Hence, I.A. No.7324 of 2004 stands disposed of.

Heard on the question of admission of this writ petition.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the father of the petitioner namely late Vijay Tiwari who was working as a Branch Manager in Zila Sahakari Krishi Aur Gramin Vikas Bank, Bilaspur (respondent No.3), died on 18/07/1999 during the course of his employment. Learned counsel further submits that after the death of his father, the petitioner submitted an application for compassionate appointment. Further submission of the learned counsel is that even after the lapse of long time after giving several representations, the said application submitted by the petitioner is not being disposed of. Copy of the application has not been filed along with this petition. Learned counsel makes a limited prayer that a direction may be given to the petitioner that a fresh copy of the said application shall be filed within the stipulated period before the concerned authorities and the concerned authorities may dispose of the same in accordance with law.

	The prayer seems to be genuine and the same is allowed. In the opinion of this Court ends of justice would be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to file a fresh application for compassionate appointment before the concerned authorities. The petitioner may file a fresh application before the concerned authorities within a period of fifteen days from today and if such an application is filed, the concerned authorities shall dispose of the same in accordance with law within a period of four ~~weeks~~ months from the date of filing of such application along with the copy of this order and the copy of Writ Petition No.3460 of 2004. With the above observations, the petition stands disposed of finally. Sd/- Sunil Kumar Sinha Judge
